Task description:

Reprieve is seeking enthusiastic and talented interns to work in its office during summer 2010. The number of internships available has not yet been determined, but interns are needed for all of Reprieve's teams: Death Penalty, Secret Prisons and Operations/Media.

Interested applicants would need to be able to commit 4 or 5 days per week for at least 3 months. The positions will be open between May and late August or early September. We are seeking interns who are well-written, good researchers, work well within a team and are committed to Reprieve's values.

If you are interested applying for a position, please complete an application form (available from our website: www.reprieve.org.uk/volunteer) or a CV (no longer than 2-A4 pages) and send to cortney.busch@reprieve.org.uk. Alternatively, if you have already completed an application form and sent it in, e-mail cortney.busch@reprieve.org.uk stating your interest in an internship and that your application is on file. If you have a preference of team with which you would like to work, please state so in your e-mail.

We are unable to offer any payment for these positions, but you will be able to access a daily travel allowance of either £5 or £10 depending on your location.

Positions will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Please note that this is a very competitive programme and therefore please do not submit an application or expression of interest if you are unable to meet the minimum time commitment required. Unsuccessful applicants will be informed by the end of April 2010.
